

Name? Leanne?

Box 19 Grp 28 RR1
East Selkirk, MB ROE OMO
December 18, 2016

Dear Kaylee,

I needed to write this letter to tell you how I really feel, about you, about Dj, about me... about everything. I'm really sorry. If it weren't for NEED you probably would never have found out about any of this, but it doesn't change the fact that I was a coward and lied. I just needed to tell you how sorry I was, how sorry I am.

I never imagined that I would be a match for Dj, not in a million years, that's why I got tested as a donor. Was I ever shocked when I found out I was a match, and not only that but I had 5 of the 6 antigens, giving him a very high chance at success. After that I did tons and tons of research and it was really probable that I would have a complete recovery and would be totally fine, but still I was too scared, so I lied. I know it was wrong and selfish, but I figured what you didn't know couldn't hurt you, and plus you were so close to finding your Dad anyways. I know that doesn't change the fact that I was a coward but I was just so scared that I wouldn't make it and then I'd lose you. I love you Kaylee Dunham and I couldn't bear the thought of leaving you, and mostly because I didn't want you to feel that kind of pain because after everything, after losing your Dad, after Dj having another relapse, you didn't deserve it. So as soon as I got that email from the Nottawa Experimental Exchange Differential, what we now know as NEED, and had the opportunity to justify what I did by finding your Dad and a kidney for Dj, I jumped at the chance. If I had known what I was getting into I never would have helped NEED, but I didn't know. I guess all I was thinking about was making sure you never found out what I did, and not how unusual the whole thing was. If only I knew ahead of time that finding your Dad couldn't help since he's not even related to Dj, then maybe I wouldn't have agreed to help NEED. You had every right to ask NEED for a kidney, I just wish it hadn't almost cost me my life. If I could go back knowing what would happen, I would do it right. I would tell you the truth about the results because I love you, and I would give my other kidney to Dj because I also love him.

I feel terrible and I know you probably won't ever forgive me totally and you also won't trust me for a very long time, and I'm ready to live with those consequences. I am so sorry Kaylee. Please write back.

Love,

Nate Weakley

FRIENDLY LETTER

Box 19 Grp 28 RRI

East Seikirk, MB R0E 0M0

December 15, 2016

Dear Kaylee,

I needed to write this letter to tell you how I really feel, about you, about Dj, about me... about everything. I'm really sorry. If it weren't for NEED you probably would have never found out about any of this, but it doesn't change the fact that I was a coward and lied. I just needed to tell you how sorry I was, how sorry I am.

I never imagined that I would be a match for Dj, not in a million years, that's why I got tested as a donor. Was I ever shocked when I found out I was a match, and not only that but I had 5 of the 6 antigens, giving him a very high chance at success. After that I did tons and tons of research and it was really probable that I would have a complete recovery and would be totally fine, but still I was too scared, so I lied. I know it was wrong and selfish, but I figured what you didn't know couldn't hurt you, and plus you were so close to finding your Dad anyways. I know that doesn't change the fact that I was a coward but I was just so scared that I wouldn't make it and then I'd lose you. I love you Kaylee Dunham and I couldn't bear the thought of leaving you, and mostly because I didn't want you to feel that kind of pain because after everything, after losing your Dad, after Dj having another relapse, you didn't deserve it. So as soon as

I got that email from the Nottawa Experimental Exchange Differential, what we now know as NEED, and had the opportunity to justify what I did by finding your Dad and a Kidney for Dj; I jumped at the chance. If I had known what I was getting into I never would have helped NEED, but I didn't know. I guess all I was thinking about was making sure you never found out what I did, and not how unusual the whole thing was. If only I knew ahead of time that finding your Dad couldn't help since he's not even related to Dj, then maybe I wouldn't have agreed to help NEED. You had every right to ask NEED for a Kidney, I just wish it hadn't almost cost me my life. If I could go back knowing what would happen, I would do it right. I would tell you the truth about the results because I love you, and I would give my other Kidney to Dj because I also love him. I feel terrible and I know you probably won't ever forgive me totally and you also won't trust me for a very long time, and I'm ready to live with those consequences. I am so sorry Kaylee. Please write back soon.

Love,

Nate Weakley

Friendly Letter Sample

My address
- Box
- Seneca, MS

1234 Any Street (Your street address)
 My Town, OH 45764 (City, State ZIP)
 July 12, 2007 (Current Date)

- experiment
experiment
experiment Name

Indentation

Dear John, (Notice the use of a comma after the greeting)

Indent →
Indent →
Body (1-3 Paragraphs)

Introductory Paragraph: Use this paragraph to explain your purpose for writing. Try to include at least 3-4 sentences. Friendly letters are a form of casual correspondence, so the number of paragraphs and sentences per paragraph can vary greatly.

Notice the lack of spacing between paragraphs and the use of indentation to indicate the beginning of a new paragraph. This is a more traditional letter format. Also note the indentation of the heading information (your address area) and how it aligns with the closing information below.

You may choose to use block format (as featured in the Business Letter Sample) if you prefer. As shown in this Friendly Letter Sample, no Inside Address (the recipient's address) is needed. Many friendly letters even omit the sender's address and just use the date as a heading.

(Closing options in a friendly letter are more numerous and often casual)

Conclusion

Sincerely, (comma)

align right

Your Signature ← Character name
 (by hand)

(Sign your name after the closing. Your name does not need to appear typed beneath your signature in a friendly letter as it does in a business letter.)

Body
Biggest Pgh.
- explain why you're writing
- info

Letter-Writing

Student Name: _____

CATEGORY	Above Level - 5	At Level - 3/4	Below Level - 2/1	At Risk - 0
Salutation and Closing	Salutation and closing have no errors in capitalization and punctuation.	Salutation and closing have 1-2 errors in capitalization and punctuation.	Salutation and closing have 3 or more errors in capitalization and punctuation.	Salutation and/or closing are missing.
Ideas	Ideas were expressed in a clear and organized fashion. It was easy to figure out what the letter was about.	Ideas were expressed in a pretty clear manner, but the organization could have been better.	Ideas were somewhat organized, but were not clear. It took more than one reading to figure out what the letter was about.	It was very difficult to figure out what the letter was about.
Format	Complies with all the requirements for a friendly letter.	Complies with almost all the requirements for a friendly letter.	Complies with several of the requirements for a friendly letter.	Complies with less than 75% of the requirements for a friendly letter.
Content Accuracy	The letter contains at least 6 accurate facts about the topic.	The letter contains 4-5 accurate facts about the topic.	The letter contains 2-3 accurate facts about the topic.	The letter contains 1 or no facts about the topic.
Grammar & spelling (conventions)	Writer makes no errors in grammar or spelling.	Writer makes 1-2 errors in grammar and/or spelling.	Writer makes 3-4 errors in grammar and/or spelling	Writer makes more than 4 errors in grammar and/or spelling.

Wish me luck!
 See you soon!
 I write back soon!
 I hope to hear from you!

25 / 25

Can I keep this as an example?