2 dead after street fight stabbing

Mercutio, and Tybalt found dead after stabbing, Romeo exiled

By Sophia Thorne

VERONA Italy- Yesterday afternoon, local Capulet Tybalt, and Montague Mercutio, were found dead after being stabbed. This was the result of a deadly street fight, which sources say was started by the Capulet party.

A few days before the stabbing, sources say, that Tybalt wanted to confront Romeo, but didn't get the chance to, after seeing him at the Capulet party. "That's when the tension started to build", said Lord Capulet.

The day of the brawl, local bystanders say that the fight started mid-afternoon, when some Capulet family members arrived at the courtyard, looking for Romeo.

"Romeo refused to fight", Benvolio stated. Adding to his statement, Benvolio said that "Romeo told Tybalt that he had to love him for a secretive reason."

Tybalt then stabbed Mercutio by accident, after missing Romeo's arm. Another nearby Montague said, that Tybalt fled the scene with the other Capulets.

Mercutio did not get the chance to seek medical attention and as a result died of the laceration in his chest. Before dying, Mercutio said something about a plague on both our houses, said Benvolio.

Some Capulet's said that Romeo attacked Tybalt out of rage and ordered him to fight. The fight resulted in Tybalt being stabbed and, killed.

Romeo Kills Tybalt after Mercutio's death.

The investigation is still ongoing, but the prince has ordered that Romeo be exiled. The prince stated, that "too much crime is happening between the Montagues and Capulets, and the time has come to stop. Anymore homicides will result in the maximum penalty."

If one has any additional information, please contact crimesrbad at 204 321 4708.